

Tilden Twice Trounces Richards in Spirited Tennis Matches on New Jersey Courts

2,000 Thrilled By Speedy Play Of Champions

Richards Loses First Tilt. 4-6, 6-4, 6-4. But Tilden Takes 2d in Straight Sets

The series of exhibition lawn tennis matches for the benefit of the American Committee for Devastated France began yesterday morning on the clay courts of the Orange Lawn Tennis Club, at Mountain Station, N. J., followed by an afternoon session on the courts of the Short Hills Club. More than 2,000 persons saw the matches, and, incidentally, some of the most spirited tennis seen on Eastern courts this season.

At the Orange Club there were about 600 enthusiasts in the gallery when the first match of the series began with William T. Tilden 2d, national and world's champion, facing Vincent Richards, of Fordham University, national junior title holder. Tilden won this match after three furiously contested sets by a score of 4-6, 6-4, 6-4. Both players were about at the pinnacle of their playing form, with each bringing off sensational shots from all over the court.

Tilden was going like the wind, his "bullet" service being very difficult to handle, and he followed in behind his delivery with splendid speed to take Richards returns on the volley. The champion was also driving with such tremendous pace and able control that it was exceedingly hazardous for Richards to venture inside the service court line unless he was sure of his position. In the opening set the junior champion succeeded in doing this, and once there he dominated the situation by dint of superb volleying.

Tilden increased speed and power of his vicious driving attack, and in the last two sets he held the upper hand, using his opponent's return with lightning drives that cut the dark marks as the ball whistled by Richards. The play was also marked by many flashing volleying exchanges between the two men, with Tilden having just sufficient advantage to pull out the last two sets.

A few minutes after this match had been decided the mixed doubles event was staged. Owing to the short time remaining for play it was decided to confine the match to two sets. Tilden paired with Miss Leslie Bancroft, of the Longwood Cricket Club, while Richards was partnered by Miss Frank H. Godfrey, also of Longwood.

The first mixed pair took the opening set by a score of 6-2, with both girls doing their share of the work in the string rallies. Miss Bancroft was very effective, either when in back court or close to the net, and she was a bit steadier than Mrs. Godfrey as a rule. In the second set Richards and Mrs. Godfrey put up a better fight, but Tilden and Miss Bancroft, with Richards bringing off almost impossible shots from inside the service court line, and his partner injecting her own brilliant volleys, won several times to bring off the finishing shots. It was tight tennis.

A Straight Set Victory

The matches at Short Hills showed the tall Tilden in even more spectacular form, and this time he defeated Richards in straight sets, 6-1, 6-0, 6-0. The play was so fast that it was difficult for the eyes to follow the flight of the ball in the sharp rallies at the net. The matches were so even when Richards volleyed fast from the back court, Tilden excelled, owing to the greater speed and pace of his ground strokes. Even so, Richards forced him to the limit to take the first set.

There was a change of partners in the second mixed doubles match of the day. Mrs. Godfrey, playing with Tilden and Miss Bancroft, pairing off with Richards, and Mrs. Godfrey played sensational tennis, and after taking the first set at 6-2, staged a remarkable rally in the second session, when Miss Bancroft and Richards held the lead at 4-1. The last four games were played in a dizzy pace, with Tilden and Mrs. Godfrey running through without a break, for the set at 6-4, and the match.

Over 2,000 persons were in the gallery that surrounded the courts at Short Hills, special stands having been erected. It was announced after the last match of the day, that the tennis series had been materially enriched as a result of the first two series of matches.

On Wednesday, on the courts of the Green Meadow Country Club, near Rye, the third set of matches will be played, with Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt, national women champion, and Miss Eleanor Tamm taking the place of first and second partners.

There will be both men's and women's singles and mixed doubles at Green Meadow.

The players will move on to Hartfield, N. J., on Saturday, when Mrs. Godfrey and Miss Bancroft again competing, and the remainder of the tour will be announced within the next few days. Already telegraphed requests for the tour have been received from as far as Nebraska and Michigan.

Kynaston in Semi-Final In Essex County Tennis

The annual Essex County men's championship lawn tennis tournament began yesterday on the clay courts of the Essex County Country Club, at West Orange, with thirty-five numbers competing in the singles. Numerous contests enabled the committee to bring in the first round matches, with three players occupying these brackets. Two other are a round behind.

Perry L. Kynaston gained his semifinal bracket by defeating James D. Evans at 6-4, 6-2, in the fourth round, playing steadily when it came to playing the backcourt position and also his ability to finish off shots at the net position.

Anton Von Bernuth, in the same round, defeated Howard Bath at 6-1, 6-3, and E. C. Oleson won from C. A. Brewster at 6-1, 6-1, to gain the semi-final brackets.

The summaries:

Essex County championship singles: First round—C. A. Brewster, 6-1, 6-1, defeated Howard Bath; E. C. Oleson, 6-1, 6-1, defeated Anton Von Bernuth; Perry L. Kynaston, 6-4, 6-2, defeated James D. Lynch Once Again Under Management Of His Old Friend

Former Bantam Champion Announces He Has Signed 3-Yr. Contract With Mead

Joe Lynch, former Bantamweight champion, has pitched up his differences with Eddie Mead and is once more under the managerial wing of his old friend. The first news of a break between the two came about a week ago when Lynch refused to sign a contract, but last night the boxer himself announced that he had signed up for three years with Mead.

Lynch and Mead are great friends and when trouble broke they were reluctant to separate. Lynch, however, thought he had a grievance and refused to sign the papers. The former champion seemed overjoyed at the thought of being again with his old benefactor and declared that he was anxious to get into action.

Joe has not fought here since he lost his crown to Pete Herman at Ebbets Field last July, and now that Johnny Buff is bantamweight champion Lynch is confident that he can beat him. Lynch returned from the Maine woods where he had been building up his physique for a rigorous campaign.

While Mead has not arranged any bouts for his charge definitely he has many in prospect, and it is likely that Joe will meet some title contender at the opening show of the Lexington Avenue A. C. in the immediate future.

"Wolf" Larsen, who used to "knock 'em dead" in the amateur ranks, will appear in a local ring to-night after a short lay-off. Larsen is scheduled to fight Pat Bulger in the feature bout of two rounds at the Freeport Auditorium.

The Queensboro Athletic Club will also hold forth to-night as a result of Saturday's postponement on account of rain. The entire card has been advanced and Harold Abbot and Jay Lashman single about the twelve-round wind-up.

The Queensboro also has a set of bouts for to-morrow evening, featuring Bushy Graham and Joe Mooney.

The Broadway Exhibition Association of Brooklyn has carded Roy Moore and Vee Willie Spencer for their twelve-round attraction this evening.

Paul Doyle, the Bath Beach waterweight, has opened matches for a second round with Jimmy O'Gatty at the Palace of Joy Sporting Club Wednesday evening. There will also be two ten-rounders, Packer O'Gatty meeting Jack Hauser and Eddie Leonard opposing Eddie Lynch.

The Ring Sporting Club, which staged its opening card last Saturday night, when Willie Kohler outboxed Harvey Bright, has arranged another feature bout between featherweights for next Saturday. Bobby Michaels, one of the most promising boys in this division, will go twelve rounds or less with Red Cap Wilson.

Two Clubs in Race For Women's Golf Meet

Officials of the United States Golf Association before leaving the Hollywood Club, Del., N. J., Saturday, gave attention to applications for next year's women's national championship. Two clubs seem to have about equal chances of the award—the Allegheny Country Club, of Philadelphia, and the White Sulphur Springs Club, of West Virginia.

Should it go to the latter course a slightly earlier date than usual is likely. In any event the future will go to some point not further east than Pittsburg in order to accommodate the Chicago contingent.

Bicycle Races Postponed

The bicycle races which were scheduled for Newark yesterday afternoon were called off on account of the cold weather.

Mme. Blanc's Ksar Wins Triomphe Stake, Value 300,000 Francs

PARIS, Oct. 9.—The Arc de Triomphe Stake, the second richest of the French turf, was won today by Mme. Edmond Blanc's three-year-old colt, Ksar. The stake this year had an added value of 300,000 francs. The race was over a distance of one mile and a half.

Except for the Grand Prix de Paris, Ksar has won every start this season. He is considered the best three-year-old of the French turf.

"Sub's" Brilliancy May Cost Joepler Job on Navy Team

Discovery of Noyes Upsets Folwell's Plans; Sailors in Fine Shape for Tigers

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 9.—All of the Naval Academy sailors who were used yesterday against Western Reserve came out of the contest unscathed, and the squad is in fine condition to begin preparations to-morrow for the Princeton game here Saturday. The feeling prevails that the Navy has at least an even chance to win.

Coach Folwell's biggest problem will be to make a selection of backs to start the game. The extremely brilliant work of Noyes, who got his first chance yesterday, has somewhat upset the organization, as he is regarded as the special substitute for Joepler and that player is also in fine form. Arrangement so as to procure the services of both may be necessary.

One of the newer backs, Barclay, Cullen and Norris also did excellent work while that of Conroy, Hamilton and Cruise was up to the standard. Every one of the first string lineups was used for some time yesterday excepting Titus, who began the season at left end. However, Taylor is playing a strong game in his place.

Keek, Princeton's captain and All-American tackle, will be on the line Saturday by King, the veteran of the Navy line. A battle royal is expected, and Navy people are confident that their war horses will hold his own. He is playing his fourth year on the team and is powerful, rugged and aggressive.

Fordham Students to Go To Georgetown Contest

More than two hundred students have already subscribed for the Fordham University bus trip to Washington on November 5 to the annual Fordham-Georgetown football game. Student Manager Joseph I. Boyan expects that there will be at least 200 more subscriptions when he has made a canvass of the alumni.

The buses will leave in relays on Friday, November 4, from the Fordham University campus, beginning at 10 o'clock noon. Other parties will start at later hours to suit the convenience of the passengers. A few buses will leave immediately after the game, but it is possible that some students may decide to stay over until Monday evening.

Army Horse Test Today

TEENTON, N. J., Oct. 9.—Seventeen horses owned by the War Department army officers and others to-day will start on a 300-mile test to determine what type of animal is best suited for army purposes. For four days officers or students of this question will ride sixty miles a day from Camp Alfred D. Jones, N. J., to Washington. Eight thoroughbreds are entered and the Arabian variety of mount also is well represented. The test ends October 14.

Amateurs in Garden Bouts

There will be another amateur boxing tournament at Madison Square Garden Wednesday and Thursday evenings with championships in six classes to be decided. Louis Gugliemini, of the Pastime Athletic Club, is again favored to land belt honors in the bantamweight division.
